Printing Information

Badge and Wrap Prints

In general we would recommend a badge print decoration to all glassware, this is where a smaller print is used in several places around the glass. This accommodates any double curves in the ware, where a larger print may distort. Larger or wrap around prints are possible on straight sided items or where the item is conical. Larger designs or wrap prints can be placed on conical glasses by setting the artwork to the curve of the ware.

Banding and Gilding

Additional to the printed design we can add a coloured band to the rim of the glass to add more definition to the edge. This often looks best using a colour from the surface design. This process is done by hand.

It is also possible to gild the rim in gold or silver. Gilding adds value and an extra air of quality. Note, gilding is not ideal for items that will receive heavy use.

Government Measures

If the glassware is to be used in licensed premises, and metered measures are not used, every glass must be stamped with the CE mark and number to verify the measure given, this is called government stamping. This is done as a special order and minimum quantities may apply.

Wrap Print

"Everybody has to believe in something.
....I believe I'll have another drink."
